Help With What You Have

Support does not have to be financial.
You can contribute through:

✓ Skills and expertise
✓ Equipment and technology
✓ Professional services
✓ Employee volunteering
✓ Mentorship and training
✓Food, goods, toiletries, school supplies etc

Every contribution makes a difference.

TAILOR YOUR PARTNERSHIP

You may choose one pathway, combine pathways, or combine financial and in-kind support. Contribution levels are a starting point, not a ceiling.

- A retailer provides approved clothing, food or household essentials.
- An ICT business provides equipment, connectivity or technical support.
- A professional practice contributes legal, accounting, design, training or advisory expertise.
- A contractor contributes approved maintenance, building materials or technical services.
- A business creates mentorship, internship, workplace exposure or career guidance opportunities
- Employees participate in approved volunteering or skills-based initiatives

The baton is in our hands.

PASSING THE BATON FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS

WHAT WILL YOU PASS FORWARD?

MINE NGILIHAWU LEMNTFWANA WELISWATI

"I Am the Child's Shield"

Every child deserves the opportunity to grow up safely, learn, develop and reach their full potential. Yet children may experience poverty, family instability, neglect, abuse, illness, disability, loss of parental care or limited access to essential services. These challenges can affect education, health, emotional wellbeing and development.

Your support helps provide:

- Care and protection
- Education opportunities
- Healthcare and nutrition
- Psychosocial wellbeing
- Child safeguarding
- Future opportunities

Building a Stronger Future Together

At SOS Children's Villages Eswatini, we believe every child deserves to grow up in a loving family and a supportive community.

When children receive care, families grow stronger. When families thrive, communities become more resilient. Together, these building blocks create a brighter future for Eswatini.

Through the Passing the Baton for Future Generations campaign, we invite businesses, institutions, and community leaders to join us in creating lasting impact for children and families.

OUR APPROACH

Children → Families → Communities → Future

LUSITO LWEMNDENI LWAKHIWA NDZAWONYE

"Family Support is Built Together"

Families can face poverty, unemployment, illness, disability and instability that make it difficult to provide consistent care, protection and opportunity. SOS works with families at risk of breakdown to strengthen their ability to care for and protect children.

Your contribution helps provide:

- Parenting support
- Family counselling
- Household resilience
- Livelihood opportunities
- Skills development
- Economic empowerment
- Family reintegration
- Child protection

"Building Communities that Care"

Lasting change also requires strong communities. Communities experiencing unemployment, limited economic opportunities, inadequate infrastructure, weak child protection mechanisms or restricted access to essential services can place additional pressure on families and children.

Your contribution helps provide:

- Community child protection
- Youth development
- Education and skills training
- Economic empowerment
- Community infrastructure
- Health and wellbeing initiatives
- Water, sanitation and hygiene programmes
- Community resilience

WHY SME PARTNERSHIP MATTERS?

SMEs are part of the communities in which children and families live. Local businesses create jobs, provide services, build relationships and possess practical resources that can streng then locally led solutions. Your partnership can grow as your business grows.

PASSING THE BATON FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS

The future we want for children will not be created by SOS Children's Villages Eswatini alone. It requires individuals, businesses, institutions and communities to recognise that the future of Eswatini's children is a responsibility we share.
